

CITY OF CHULA VISTA PROPOSAL TO IAFF
REGARDING BI-LINGUAL PAY

PROPOSAL # 14
DATE: January 29, 2014

PROPOSALS:

The City and IAFF have exchanged proposals on bi-lingual pay. The City submits the following.

CURRENT LANGUAGE:

ARTICLE 2.09 BILINGUAL PAY

Those employees who, upon verification by the Fire Chief and the Director of Human Resources, and who successfully complete a Bilingual Performance Examination for the following languages: Spanish, Tagalog, Vietnamese, and Japanese, who use their bilingual skills will receive $200 per month in addition to their regular pay. In order to continue receiving bilingual pay, employees must successfully complete a Bilingual Performance Examination once every three (3) years.

| CONCERN:

The City must be cautious and prudent in its use of public monies. In addition, other City employee's are paid less for similar services.

PROPOSAL:

ARTICLE 2.09 BILINGUAL PAY

Those employees who, upon verification by the Fire Chief and the Director of Human Resources, and who successfully complete a Bilingual Performance Examination for the following languages: American Sign Language ("ASL") Spanish, Tagalog, Vietnamese, and Japanese, who use their bilingual skills will be eligible for bi-lingual pay as follows.

1. If an employee passes an examination showing a basic level of proficiency they shall receive $100 per month in addition to their regular pay. An employee who is at a basic level of proficiency shall have the skills to sufficiently and competently obtain and communicate (speak) basic information with citizens, including, but not limited to, using and understanding greetings, introductions, numbers, addresses and locations, money, days of the week, months of the year, members of the family, knowing body parts, describing and understanding complaints of pain or injury, description of witnesses or other persons, rooms in a building, interrogative words, pronouncing and using names correctly, and giving and following general directions during medical aids, inspections, or investigation. The communication should of such a nature that the employee is able to speak in complete sentences and is readily understood by the member of the public being communicated with. receive $200 per month in addition to their regular pay. In order to continue receiving bilingual pay at this level, employees must successfully complete a Bilingual Performance Examination once every three (3) years. The Human Resources Department shall develop and administer testing to determine if an employee is at a basis proficiency level. Current bi-lingual pay incumbents shall continue to be paid $200 until they are due for recertification testing, at which time their proficiency shall be tested and they shall be paid according to either the basic level of proficiency or advanced level of proficiency.

- 2. If an employee passes an examination showing an advanced level of proficiency they shall receive $200 per month in addition to their regular pay. An employee who is at advanced level of proficiency shall have the skills to read, write, and speak in any of the above languages at above a high school level, including demonstrating the ability to use medical, legal, and/or technical terminology. The communication should be of such a nature that the communication is at a more detailed and complex level, with little to no difficulty in communication during medical aids, inspections, or investigations. The Human Resources Department shall develop and administer testing to determine if an employee is at an advanced proficiency level. In order to continue receiving bilingual pay at this level, employees must successfully complete a Bilingual Performance Examination once every six (6) years.

RESULTS:

The City is cautious and prudent in the use of public monies. In addition, bi-lingual pay is uniform within the City for routine bi-lingual communications. The City also moves towards IAFF's position that bi-lingual communications in certain situations (complex medical calls and arson investigations) require a greater level of skill.
